

50 Remick Street, Stafford Heights

FIRST TIME SALE IN 44 YEARS!

For the first time in forty-four years, the doors of 50 Remick Street swing open to a new chapter. Homes like this don't come to market, they come to be inherited, passed down, held onto for a lifetime. Set proudly on a corner block, this is a rare and genuine opportunity to own a piece of Stafford Heights history, immaculately presented and ready to welcome its next family.

Step inside and it's immediately clear this home has been loved. Every surface speaks of careful, consistent care freshly painted ceilings cast a soft, bright light across the living spaces, while new carpet laid downstairs brings a sense of warmth and renewal underfoot. The living area unfolds with an easy, unhurried rhythm, the kind that only comes from a home truly lived in and looked after.

What sets this home apart is the sheer breadth of space on offer. Multiple living zones and multi-purpose rooms are scattered thoughtfully throughout, offering room to spread out, retreat, or come together, whatever the moment calls for. Whether it's a quiet corner for reading, a games room for the kids, or a second lounge for movie nights, this home simply gives you options most others can't.

Positioned on a coveted corner block, the home enjoys added street presence, extra natural light and a genuine sense of space rarely found so close to the city. It's the kind of position that adds both everyday lifestyle value and long-term appeal.

Four generous bedrooms provide comfortable accommodation for the whole family, while two well-kept bathrooms ensure there's never a compromise, no matter how busy the household becomes.

Outside, a practical shed adds valuable extra storage, the perfect space for tools, hobbies or simply keeping life organised. A double garage completes the offering, providing secure parking and everyday convenience.

Forty-four years is a long time to call somewhere home, and it shows in every carefully maintained corner of this property. Opportunities like this are as rare as they come. Reach out to Dean or Oscar today to arrange your inspection, and be part of this home's next chapter.
