

96 Jardine Street, Stafford

PADUA PRECINT FAMILY HOME !

Positioned in a well-regarded pocket of Stafford, this five-bedroom home offers a practical and well-balanced layout designed around everyday family living. Set across two levels, the home combines generous internal space with strong indoor—outdoor connection and a clear focus on functionality.

The main living, dining, and kitchen area forms the center of the home, designed in a manner that puts ease of use to the forefront. Polished timber flooring runs throughout the lower level, grounding the interior with warmth and continuity. The kitchen is well appointed, featuring an oversized stone island, ample cabinetry, stainless steel appliances, and a butler's pantry for additional storage and preparation.

From the main living area, the home opens directly to a covered alfresco space that extends upward to the second level, creating a sheltered outdoor area with a strong sense of scale. This space overlooks the in-ground pool and rear yard, making it well suited to entertaining or relaxed day-to-day use while remaining connected to the interior.
