

221 Two Sticks Road, Stromlo

Architectural Mud Brick Masterpiece with Sustainable Design

Note: The Address is 221 Two Sticks Road COREE ACT 2611

The ACT's best kept secret, crafted to harmonise with its natural surroundings, 221 Two Sticks Road Coree presents a thoughtful, 100% off-grid escape less than 40 minutes from Canberra's CBD. Winner of two Master Builder national environment & energy efficiency awards, this mudbrick masterpiece nestled in the Sherwood Reserve is positioned to embrace stunning northerly views towards Canberra and rolling hills surrounding, with picturesque bushland aspects from every other window.

Simply breathtaking, this home is more than its unique, rustic appearance which blends harmoniously with its natural environment. Mudbrick homes are popular for their thermal mass, durability and low environmental impact, perfectly regulating temperature and acoustic insulation.

Nestled within picturesque bushland, quiet tree-lined and well-maintained roads paint the picture of the privacy and serenity on offer.

Immediately welcoming with a spectacular union of rich character and contemporary comfort, the home itself exudes warmth through a natural palate of high ceilings, skylights and exposed timber all bathed in natural light from large expanses of glass showcasing the picturesque surrounds.

A design focused on open plan entertaining, synonymous with the Australian lifestyle and embracing the northerly views, the lower level offers the bespoke kitchen, surrounded by space to live, dine or entertaining. Glass French doors seamlessly open wide to a large deck, overlooking a fenced grassed area, an ideal secure area for pets. Three spacious bedrooms, main bathroom plus two-way bathroom/laundry acting as an ensuite to one of the bedrooms are also located on this level.

The second level houses the spectacular master accommodation. Exceptionally spacious and light filled via voids, the bedroom includes dual French doors, opening out to a private patio, bringing the same spectacular northerly views in, plus dual robes/dressing rooms and storage rooms. Twin bridges framed in timber and glass guide you to an ensuite that will take your breath away. Imagine a relaxing walk in shower, or a soak in a freestanding stone feature bath, overlooking vast bushland without a neighbour in sight.

Upstairs, an additional private living room/office or library feels like a warm embrace, with a private patio and spiral staircase leading you to the rooftop viewing platform, where the expansive, almost never ending views can be best appreciated.

100% off-the-grid, thoughtful sustainability features include a 10,000L water tank, power system with solar panels, automated inverter and backup gas generator, BioCycle septic system plus 3G phone reception.

Stretching to the NSW border, approx. 2/3 of the land has been cleared, the rest a forest waiting to be explored, rich in natural history including 4 dams plus resident wildlife such as wombats, echidnas, wallabies and local birdlife.

For those seeking a rural escape, a home away from home, eco-friendly living, or simply a future proof purchase and a home designed for ease of living, this is a home that truly must be seen to be believed.
