- Low-maintenance brick and tile design situated on a level, easy-care 552m2 allotment.
- Exceptional future potential to renovate for added value or build a bespoke dream home.

Set on a perfectly level 552m2 block, the property offers immediate comfort today and immense potential for tomorrow. The flat terrain makes this an ideal site to eventually build a bespoke dream home in a street where values are underpinned by academic excellence.

Beyond the front door, the lifestyle is truly walkable, with Sunnybank Hills State School, childcare centres and the Pinelands Shopping Centre all within a short stroll. You are also minutes from city-bound buses, medical centres, and local parklands, while a short drive connects you to the Banoon Train Station for a seamless commute to the CBD.

Thoughtfully updated to balance modern style with low-maintenance living, you can spend more time enjoying the easy-care lifestyle. The updated kitchen features a glossy white 2-pak cabinetry complete with elegant hanging cupboards and a sleek contemporary finish. Stay comfortable year-round thanks to the split-system air conditioner in the lounge and ceiling fans in the master and second bedrooms.

The list of work done keeps on going! The interior shines with new light fittings throughout, while the functional bathroom has been enhanced with new tapware and updated hardware on the vanity. Even the exterior has been revitalised, featuring gutters painted in a stylish charcoal and a new cream-white timber side fence that provides a crisp, modern street appeal. Your vehicle can be kept safely in the lockup garage and long level driveway for extra vehicles' parking.

The clever internal layout even allows for future value-adding, such as removing the existing bathtub to install a second toilet (STCA) and replacing the existing window in meals area with a sliding door to allow for easy access to outside entertaining with family and friends.

This solid much-loved family home has now been beautifully refreshed and updated for a new chapter. The elderly owner is committed to a result, meaning this property must be sold.

Whether you are a young family, an investor, elderly looking for a convenient plus location or looking for the perfect site for a new build, 27 Ballater Street is a premier choice. Be quick to Contact Shirley Chow today for more information.
