ROOM TO GROW

If that bit of extra land is on the wish list - bigger than a normal block, but without the cost and upkeep of acreage - this one is well worth a look.

Built in Colorbond, the home has been designed with low maintenance in mind. A quick gurney, some oil on the deck once a year and that's about it, leaving you more time to work in the shed, potter around the garden or simply enjoy the extra space.

The local shops and beach are close by, and the main Batemans Bay CBD is around a ten-minute drive away, giving you a good balance of
