balcony, large built-in robes and ensuite. Downstairs, additional bedrooms and a spacious rumpus area create flexibility for growing families or guests, with the layout also offering potential for semi-self-contained living.

Outdoors, the lifestyle offering continues with a solar-heated inground pool and spa, providing the ideal setting for long summer afternoons with family and friends.

The 42 acres (approx.) offer a wonderful balance of open space and natural bushland. With multiple paddocks, dams, horse infrastructure and a bore in place, the property presents genuine versatility for horse enthusiasts, hobby farmers or those simply seeking room to breathe. There is also scope for the next owner to further shape and enhance the land to suit their vision.

Adding further flexibility is a separate three-bedroom residence, privately positioned with its own access from East Tallangandra Lane. Whether used for extended family, guest accommodation or as a rental income stream, this second dwelling broadens the possibilities of the property.

What truly sets this property apart is its location. Sutton remains one of the region's most loved rural communities and known for its welcoming country feel, local bakery and café, pony club and strong sense of community, all while being only a short drive to Canberra.

Properties offering this scale of land, dual living flexibility and proximity to the city are increasingly rare, making 3 Darmody Place a truly special lifestyle opportunity.
