

Swan Hill, 88 High Street

Pole Position, 4 Bedrooms - The Perfect Central Lifestyle Residence

Tucked away quietly in Swan Hill's most preferred neighbourhood, this quality four bedroom brick veneer residence is everything you might want, and more.

It sits on a large, wide block on a wide central street with a median strip and has a very flexible and functional floorplan.

The layout is so flexible you could establish a home-based business with a waiting room and a couple of offices quite isolated from the residential space (subject to Council approval) and the home is ideal for multi-generational living.

Along with its four bedrooms, it boasts four living spaces and three bathrooms and is nestled in a fully developed garden setting that is the envy of many. The cool, green, shady rear garden also has a long frontage to a rear laneway for easy access if you want a large shed to store the caravan, boat and recreation equipment.

With the master bedroom and three living spaces fronting High Street to the east, the orientation is just superb and being walking distance from the CBD the location is dress-circle.

There has been quite a deal of makeover activity at the home but the opportunity to put your own stamp on this superb residence is also alive and well. There's plenty of room for a pool too in this central oasis.
