Step into this beautifully presented Ross North 4x2 family home, perfectly positioned in the thriving suburb of Tapping. Designed with comfort and functionality in mind, this home features a standout open-plan layout that effortlessly connects the kitchen and living areas, creating a warm and inviting flow throughout. Beyond the main living space, the property also includes a separate living room and an activities room, offering endless versatility to suit your family's needs.

The seamless design continues as the open-plan living area extends to a charming alfresco entertaining space, which overlooks a peaceful and low-maintenance backyard. Thoughtfully maintained, the garden is brimming with charm and includes a flourishing lemon tree—a perfect touch for those who enjoy a connection to nature. Additional features include reverse-cycle air conditioning for year-round comfort, a spacious double garage, and a shed for extra storage. Recent updates, such as newly renovated floors, modern lighting, and a fresh coat of paint, ensure the home is move-in ready and sure to impress.
