

2 Kentia Close, Taree

Four-Bedroom Family Living on 908sqm with Impressive Shedding

Positioned in a quiet cul-de-sac, 2 Kentia Close presents an excellent opportunity for families, first home buyers or those seeking a comfortable house with plenty of room both inside and out. Set on a substantial 908sqm block adjoining a park reserve, this well-maintained brick and tile residence is surrounded by established gardens and manicured lawns, offering a peaceful setting with the added benefit of extensive garaging and outdoor space.

Stepping inside, the home reveals a practical and spacious floor plan featuring four bedrooms, two bathrooms and a large separate living room. The central kitchen and dining area forms the heart of the home, providing plenty of room for everyday meals and family gatherings. An impressive enclosed sunroom extends across the rear of the residence, creating an additional living space where you can relax, entertain or simply enjoy the outlook over the backyard.

The four bedrooms are thoughtfully positioned and each feature built-in wardrobes and ceiling fans. The master bedroom enjoys the added convenience of a private ensuite bathroom, while a centrally located main bathroom services the remaining bedrooms. Reverse-cycle air conditioning in the main living area provides year-round comfort.

Outside, the property continues to impress with its established gardens, neatly maintained lawns and a backyard offering plenty of space for children, pets or those who enjoy spending time outdoors. Garden enthusiasts will appreciate the established garden beds and dedicated areas for growing vegetables, while the covered outdoor spaces provide additional options for relaxing or entertaining.

A standout feature is the substantial detached shedding, measuring approximately 6m x 13m overall and comprising of a 6m x 7m garage and adjoining 6m x 6m work shed plus an additional double carport. This versatile space provides excellent accommodation for vehicles, a workshop, storage or hobbies. Solar panels and solar hot water system are an added practical feature, helping to reduce ongoing electricity costs.

Offering a welcoming home on a sizeable block in an established residential neighbourhood, 2 Kentia Close presents plenty of possibilities for buyers looking for space, convenience and a property they can make their own.
