St Quentin | Federation Home on 1321sqm | Two Titles in the CBD

Situated in the heart of Taree's thriving CBD hub, this charismatic Federation home presents unlimited potential in today's marketplace. A stunning canvas for restoration, this property is full of character and tells many a story from yesteryear. In addition to the cosmetic potential, the substantial 1321sqm corner block on two titles in the middle of town lends itself to possible development potential, or the high-profile CBD/Medical Precinct location is ideal for running a business (Subject to Council Approval).

A sturdy and traditional weatherboard construction with iron roofing and classic bullnose verandah, inside you will find spacious rooms, high ceilings, hardwood flooring - all complemented by decorative and ornate finishes, from the corncicing to the lead light windows. A large verandah wraps around the front of the property to invite and welcome you inside to this magnificent old homestead.

The property features include...

- Earthy country style kitchen with the original fuel stove giving respect to the era of the home
- Options for living zones with one of the formal lounge rooms offering a gorgeous open fireplace and French doors, with the
