

Tarzali, 15 Turner Road

Lifestyle | Pasture | Rainforest

If you're looking for breathtaking views of lush paddocks and pristine rainforest, this property is for you. Located just outside the township of Tarzali, this 153-acre former dairy farm has evolved to support a thriving beef cattle operation of exceptional quality. With an annual rainfall of approximately 1274mm, water is plentiful in Tarzali, and this property is no exception. Multiple creeks flow year-round, along with springs and a well, ensuring a reliable water source.

Around 70 acres of the property are fully fenced and capable of grazing approximately 40 head of cattle, while the remaining land is dedicated to rainforest regeneration, home to a diverse range of wildlife such as tree kangaroos, rainforest birds, and even platypus-right at your doorstep.

The 3-bedroom block home is perched atop a hill, offering stunning panoramic views in every direction. Large patio allows you to enjoy outdoor living. Established veggie gardens
