

Tauhara, 124a Elizabeth Street

So much more than meets the eye!

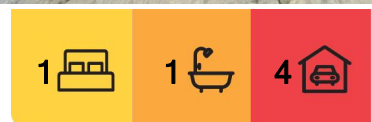

Look deeper into this property and you'll be pleasantly surprised!

Built for himself with bespoke workmanship and a unique design in 2017, the well-known reputable Taupo builder intended keeping it forever as a holiday home but a change in circumstances means it must be sold.

The ground floor consists of large sliding glass doors at the entry point. These open into the main hub of the home which offers an open plan kitchen, dining & lounge area, & an office nook plus a store/hobby room. You'll also find on this level, a bathroom including a shower over the bath plus basin and toilet which currently doubles as the laundry.

Double glazing and good insulation means the wood burning fireplace heats the entire home throughout to keep you toasty & warm!

To enter the top level, you make your way up the wooden staircase where you'll find a small reading area/landing, and a double and single bedroom. These 2 bedrooms have been created by a partition wall being added to the original large bedroom. Sit and relax in the afternoon sun on the upstairs private deck.
