

46 Bligh Street, Telarah

Packed with Potential

Positioned in one of Telarah's most established and sought-after pockets, this charming three-bedroom weatherboard and terracotta tile home presents an outstanding opportunity for first home buyers and savvy investors alike.

Solid as the day it was built, this property offers the perfect foundation to move straight in while still leaving room to add value and maximise your return.

Inside, the home boasts generous living spaces complemented by a fresh, modern colour palette throughout. The updated laminate kitchen is both practical and spacious, featuring an abundance of bench space and storage, ideal for everyday living serviced by a reverse cycle ducted air conditioning system.

Adding further versatility is a separate kitchenette located in the rear sunroom-perfect for extended family, entertaining, or future enhancement.

Accommodation includes three well-sized bedrooms serviced by a centrally located main bathroom, along with the added convenience of a second shower and toilet positioned near the rear laundry.

Step outside and you'll discover an entertainer's haven. The sunroom flows seamlessly out to a fully covered BBQ area, offering year-round enjoyment regardless of the weather. Beyond this, a substantial 10m x 7m garage with rear lane access provides ample space for vehicles, storage, or a workshop setup.

Conveniently located just moments from local shops, public transport, and with the bowling club directly across the road, plus the Maitland CBD only a short drive away-this is a lifestyle and investment opportunity not to be missed.
