Sprawling Coastal Sanctuary with Flexible Dual Living

Set on an expansive and private 1,223sqm corner parcel, this Terrigal address offers a rare sense of space and seclusion that's increasingly hard to find. This property enjoys an elevated, tucked-away position-creating a true sanctuary where privacy, tranquillity and lifestyle come together effortlessly.

The generous landholding is matched by a substantial and highly flexible residence, ideal for large or extended families, multi-generational living or those seeking additional income potential. Multiple living zones and well-considered accommodation provide space and separation, allowing the home to adapt seamlessly to a variety of lifestyle needs.

A standout feature is the completely self-contained two-bedroom flat, privately positioned with its own separate access. Perfect for guest accommodation, rental income or a home business, it offers excellent independence from the main residence. For those seeking a single, expansive home, the flat can be easily reconnected by reinstating the existing internal staircase-providing the flexibility to configure the property as one cohesive residence or two distinct dwellings.
