Super-sized family home with pool on a huge block

Made for big families, this sprawling split-level 305m² home has scale, flexibility and tons of personality. Set on a huge 1248m² block with a sensational in-ground swimming pool, it spans multiple levels and living zones, ideal for families who want space and connection without living on top of one another.

Four expansive living spaces: Generous formal and informal living areas cater to modern family life. The main lounge makes an impact with dramatic raked ceilings and exposed beams adding warmth and character. From here, a series of living spaces extend across the home. The spacious dining area joins the generous kitchen, with its huge stone benches and abundant storage. From there, a bright, spacious sunroom and a separate rumpus room ensure everyone has the space to do what they love.

A huge pool on a huge block: Outside is where family memories are made. Long summer days in the oversized pool and gatherings across multiple outdoor areas will make your home the natural entertaining hub for family and friends for years to come. The rest of the backyard spreads across several distinct spaces, offering potential for future veggie gardens, play areas or a fire pit.
