

70 Regency Drive, Thornlie

A Statement in Space, Design & Lifestyle

This truly exceptional residence stands apart, combining striking architectural elements, impressive proportions and a premium position within the sought-after Crestwood Estate. Spanning multiple levels on a generous approximately 782sqm block, and commanding attention from the street, this is a home designed for families who value space, flexibility and something beyond the ordinary.

Step inside and the impact is immediate. Soaring ceilings create a sense of scale and light, setting the tone for what unfolds throughout the home.

The upper level offers a generous lounge that opens onto a private balcony—an ideal retreat to unwind. The master suite is also positioned here, complete with oversized built-in robes and a beautifully renovated ensuite. Opposite, a versatile mezzanine currently used as a dressing room—can easily function as a fifth bedroom, nursery or a flexible multi-purpose area.

At the front of the home, a formal dining room connects seamlessly through to the open plan meals and family zone. Again, the high ceilings enhance the feeling of openness, making these spaces both functional and inviting.
