

15/56 Kunapalari Street, Throsby

Architectural Edge. Premium Throsby Living.

Sharp architecture, refined finishes and a coveted Throsby address come together in this premium three-bedroom townhouse, delivering a sophisticated take on contemporary living.

The interiors are clean, modern and beautifully considered, with an open-plan living and dining zone forming the centrepiece of the home. A sleek kitchen complements the space, while the connection to the private outdoor area creates an effortless extension of everyday living.

Three generous bedrooms provide excellent separation from the main living areas, with a layout designed around comfort, privacy and functionality. Natural light, quality finishes and a low-maintenance design give the home a polished feel throughout.

Beyond the residence, Throsby continues to stand apart for its balance of modern convenience and natural surroundings. Walking trails, reserves and open green spaces are close by, while Gungahlin Town Centre, schools, shops and major transport links are all within easy reach.
