'BELMONT' - A PIECE OF HISTORY FOR SALE

Step back in time and experience the unique blend of history and modern convenience in this stunning federation style home, 'Belmont' was built in 1870 by Captain Hector Gollan. Nestled in the heart of Tinonee, this beautifully restored residence offers a rare opportunity to own a piece of local history, while enjoying the comforts of contemporary living.

Set on an impressive 2,207sqm* elevated block (the highest point in Tinonee), the property boasts views over the Manning River and the distant mountains, creating a serene and picturesque setting. The beautiful gardens, established trees, and the occasional visit from resident koalas make this property a nature lover's dream, with Tinonee being a renowned koala corridor.

The home has been refurbished to maintain its original charm, while offering modern upgrades such as a new roof, polished mahogany timber floorboards throughout, fresh internal and external paint, ducted air conditioning, and subtle cosmetic enhancements
