

25 Abbotsford Street, Toogoolawah

There's More to This Home Than Meets the Eye

Positioned in an elevated location, this substantial two storey family home offers space, versatility and country lifestyle convenience right in the heart of Toogoolawah.

Designed to accommodate growing families and those who love to entertain, the home provides multiple living spaces across two levels, generous accommodation, and excellent vehicle and storage options.

The lower level features a double remote control garage, a spacious rumpus room with front entry access, and a versatile studio with separate office or entry room, making it ideal for a home business, creative space, guest accommodation, or teenagers retreat. A separate toilet on this level adds further convenience.

Upstairs, the home opens to a welcoming and spacious living environment, featuring three large bedrooms, a formal lounge and dining room, a generous multi purpose room and a study nook. The well appointed kitchen forms the heart of the home and flows seamlessly into the meals area before extending out to the expansive rear entertaining deck.
