ducted reverse cycle air conditioning. The single car garage has been converted into an extra room/living space, this could be easily converted back to a garage and/or internal laundry.

Unit B delivers the ease of single-level living with a spacious design. The open lounge and dining areas connect effortlessly with the kitchen, which has been thoughtfully designed to overlook both the dining space and rear garden. With electric cooking, generous bench space, ample storage, and a breakfast bar option, it combines practicality with everyday comfort. Outdoors, an undercover entertaining area is surrounded by established gardens, offering privacy and a touch of greenery. Like Unit A, it provides enough garden space to satisfy a green thumb or can be kept simple for low-maintenance living. The master suite with walk-in robe and ensuite ensures privacy, while two additional bedrooms (or a bedroom plus study) provide flexibility. Comfort is also assured here with ducted reverse cycle air conditioning. A central bathroom, separate laundry, and internal access garage complete the home.

Together, these homes present a unique dual-living setup. Families can enjoy the flexibility of living side by side, with the single-level home perfect for ageing parents and the two-storey home ideal for growing families. At the same time, investors will value the strong dual rental income potential, with Turner's proximity to the CBD, ANU, Braddon, and transport links ensuring consistently high demand.
