New Coastal Retreat with Backing Reserve

A beautiful new-build offers effortless single-level living in a great location. Positioned on a 917sqm (approx.) gently sloping block, it backs directly onto Chatham Park bush reserve and is just minutes from beaches, shops, and the restaurants on Tuross Lake.

Originally a one-bedroom brick cottage, now meticulously transformed into a refined four-bedroom residence with quality finishes throughout.

The flexible layout includes four generous bedrooms with mirrored built-in robes, two to the front of the home and two private rear master bedrooms—each with its own beautifully appointed ensuite. A central bathroom features a statement circular bath, separate shower, and separate toilet, complemented by a well-appointed laundry with storage and external access to drying area.

The light-filled open-plan kitchen, living, and dining area forms the heart of the home, enhanced by engineered oak, herringbone flooring and a sleek in-wall reverse cycle system. Recessed sliding doors allow the space to be closed off from the hallway when desired, while large glass sliding doors, topped by a cathedral window, open to a covered alfresco deck with power-overlooking the backyard and
