Waitati, 815 Mount Cargill Road

A Hidden Haven

To be sold via deadline sale on Wednesday, 26th March at 2.00pm (prior unconditional offers may be considered)

Nestled in the rolling hills of Mount Cargill, just minutes from the charming Blueskin Bay village, is a home unlike any other, a true sanctuary of peace and modern living. Set on 3.4649 hectares of stunning land with breathtaking views stretching across the landscape, it is a place where time slows down, where every sunrise paints a masterpiece. You will feel blessed to call this home.

The four-bedroom retreat is designed for comfort, offering a spacious master suite complete with a walk-in robe and ensuite, the perfect escape after a long day. At the heart of the home, the modern kitchen gleams, equipped with a walk-in scullery, ideal for those who love to entertain. The open-plan living areas welcome natural light, seamlessly flowing onto outdoor spaces that beckon for lazy afternoons and starlit evenings.

In winter, the freestanding log burner crackles warmly, filling the home with a sense of calm and comfort. A beautifully tiled family bathroom provides a touch of luxury, while the superb internal-access garage ensures convenience at every turn.

But what truly sets this home apart is its seclusion and tranquility, a hidden getaway just 20 kilometers from the city centre, offering the best of both worlds. Whether it's enjoying a coffee at the nearby village, exploring the stunning outdoors, or simply soaking in the silence, this is a place where life feels richer, more peaceful, more connected.

For those seeking a home that feels like a retreat, this Mount Cargill haven is the dream made real. Will you call it yours?
