CHARMING 1936 COTTAGE WITH SPACE, CHARACTER & LIFESTYLE APPEAL

Positioned on a generous 1,012m² fully fenced and pet-proof block, this delightful 1936 timber cottage captures the warmth and charm of a bygone era while offering the practical features needed for comfortable everyday living. With classic street appeal and a welcoming wrap-around verandah, this home invites you to slow down and enjoy the relaxed lifestyle that comes with character living.

Stepping inside, the home immediately showcases its heritage charm with beautiful high ceilings, traditional VJ walls, and timber floors throughout, creating a wonderful sense of space and timeless style. Natural light flows throughout the home, complementing the original features that make cottages of this era so special.

The main bedroom is impressively oversized, complete with a ceiling fan and plenty of space for additional furnishings. The second bedroom is also well-sized and fitted with a ceiling fan, making it ideal for guests, children, or a home office.

The bathroom embraces the home's classic character with an original clawfoot bathtub fitted with an overhead shower, perfectly blending vintage charm with everyday practicality.

At the heart of the home, the kitchen was upgraded in approximately 2003 and offers both functionality and warmth with timber-finish cabinetry, gas cooking, and generous cupboard space, making meal preparation and storage simple and practical.

Downstairs adds further versatility to the home, featuring a laundry area and multipurpose space that could be utilised for storage, hobbies, or a workshop. A second toilet downstairs adds extra convenience, particularly when entertaining or working outdoors.

Outside, the property provides excellent space and infrastructure for vehicles, hobbies, and outdoor living. A large powered double-bay shed with roller door provides excellent storage or workshop space, complemented by an additional carport with attached lean-to and extra parking available near the rear patio.

For those who enjoy gardening or sustainable living, the property features a well-established vegetable patch with fruit trees and herbs, allowing you to enjoy fresh produce straight from your backyard. Practical additions such as a solar hot water system, water tank, the western exterior recently repainted, and the roof replaced in approximately 2003 further enhance the home's functionality and long-term appeal.

Combining classic character, generous land size, and excellent outdoor infrastructure, this charming cottage presents a fantastic opportunity for buyers seeking personality, lifestyle, and room to grow in a convenient location.
