

27 Bass Street, Warrane

Opportunity Knocks at 27 Bass Street, Warrane

Offering a fantastic opportunity for homeowners, investors and developers alike, 27 Bass Street, Warrane presents a versatile property with exciting potential for the future.

Featuring three bedrooms and one bathroom, this home provides a practical foundation for comfortable living or a valuable addition to an investment portfolio. Whether you're looking to secure your first home, expand your property portfolio or explore future development possibilities, this property is well worth your attention.

Adding further appeal, the property has previously had council-approved plans for an additional dwelling, presenting an exciting opportunity for buyers looking to maximise the potential of the site. Buyers are encouraged to make their own enquiries with Clarence City Council regarding the status of the previous approval and any requirements for future development.

Conveniently located in the popular suburb of Warrane, with access to local shops, schools, services and Hobart's CBD, this property offers an appealing combination of location, practicality and potential.
