

7 Bubalo Street, Warriewood

A Sunlit Coastal Retreat Designed for Modern Family Living

Positioned within a quiet, family friendly street in a highly convenient pocket of Warriewood, this beautifully appointed dual level residence delivers effortless coastal living with a refined contemporary aesthetic. Built just six years ago and impeccably maintained by its original owners, the home showcases a seamless fusion of light-filled interiors, quality finishes and relaxed indoor-outdoor flow, perfectly suited to modern family life.

Bathed in natural light from its desirable north east to rear orientation, the home reveals generous open plan living and dining that extends to a covered alfresco entertaining deck and level backyard beyond. Private, secure and framed by easy care landscaping, the outdoor space is ideal for children and pets, while also offering exciting scope to add a pool (STCA). Thoughtfully designed for flexibility, the layout caters to growing families with multiple living zones and well separated accommodation.

- Sunny north-east aspect with beautiful natural light throughout
- Spacious open plan living and dining flowing to covered alfresco entertaining
