Period Charm, Position & Potential

Unveiling an exemplary position, promise and period charm, this pre-war house, only 400m from Our Lady of the Angels School, presents a rare opportunity of untapped potential on a magnificent 620sqm parcel.

Rich in timeless appeal, the home is resplendent with original features awaiting revival, while a flexible floor plan invites thoughtful renovation and raising (STCA) to transform the property into a forever family residence designed to evolve with every stage of life.

Inside, classic timber floors, VJ walls, picture rails and leadlight windows form a nostalgic canvas ready to be restored and refined. Family living unfolds across the sunroom, an expansive air-conditioned lounge, and the adjoining kitchen and dining zone that balance everyday comfort with scope for modern enhancement.

Outdoor enjoyment moves from the undercover deck to a grassed backyard ideal for entertaining, relaxation and play. Accommodation is well considered, comprising of four bedrooms, supported by two bathrooms and an internal laundry. The primary bedroom features a walk-in robe, the second includes a built-in robe, and the third is
