

64 Arlington Terrace, Welland

A Rare City-Fringe Opportunity on 1,144sqm with Exceptional 21.34m Frontage

Positioned in a tightly held pocket of Welland, just minutes from the Adelaide CBD, this substantial character residence presents a rare opportunity on an expansive 1,144sqm (approx.) allotment with an impressive 21.34m frontage and double width driveway. Offering remarkable scope for future redevelopment (STPC), lifestyle enhancement, or long-term investment, this is a property defined by space, flexibility, and potential.

From the outset, the wide frontage and established street presence hint at the scale within, with a long driveway and ample off-street parking providing everyday convenience. The home itself offers a traditional yet adaptable floorplan, enhanced by a modest extension that adds valuable flexibility for modern living.

Inside, the layout allows for either four bedrooms or a versatile three-bedroom configuration with two separate living areas, catering to families seeking space to spread out or those requiring additional work-from-home or retreat zones. The original section of the home retains its character proportions, while the extension provides a practical and functional rear living option.

The home is serviced by two bathrooms, a rare and valuable inclusion for properties of this era, supporting comfortable family living or shared accommodation. A functional kitchen and dining area sits centrally within the home, connecting easily to both living zones and the outdoor areas.

Toward the rear, the flexible extension enhances usability, offering additional living space, guest accommodation, or multi-generational living potential depending on configuration. The overall layout provides excellent adaptability, with clear separation between living and accommodation zones.

Outdoors, the expansive allotment truly comes into its own. A wide rear yard offers endless opportunity for future improvements, extension, entertaining enhancements, or potential redevelopment (STPC), all within a highly desirable inner-west location.

Perfectly positioned, the property enjoys outstanding convenience with easy access to major transport routes, public transport, and nearby shopping precincts including nearby chemist. Just minutes from the CBD, the home is ideally located for both lifestyle and connectivity, with cafés, schools, and everyday amenities all within close reach.
