

23 Ashburton Avenue, West Lakes Shore

Resort Style Living with Exceptional Outdoor Entertaining

Enjoying a coastal setting in this tightly held pocket, only 100 metres from the lake and mere minutes to the beach, this home offers a relaxed, coastal lifestyle where you can feel on holiday every day. The star of the show is the outdoor entertaining area, featuring contemporary curved bench seating surrounding a fire pit, creating a space designed for relaxed and large gatherings year-round.

When you step inside, this beautifully presented modern split-level home is filled with natural light and complemented by high ceilings and neutral decor, enhancing the sense of space throughout. Offering a practical layout that appeals to a range of buyers including families, couples and retirees, and with scope to further extend (STCC) and add value over time, the property also presents an opportunity for investors and renovators.

Property Features:

Renovated double brick, split level home
Travertine pathway leading to front porch with decked entry
Open plan lounge and dining area with feature
