The Art of Private Coastal Living: Scale, Privacy & Potential

A rare sanctuary of remarkable scale and timeless character, this secluded Whale Beach residence is privately nestled just 560 metres from the shoreline, capturing sweeping views across Pittwater and Careel Bay. Surrounded by established greenery and immersed in absolute tranquillity, it offers an idyllic retreat where the pace slows and the beauty of nature takes centre stage.

Defined by soaring cathedral ceilings, expansive proportions and walls of glass, the home celebrates an era of generous design and enduring craftsmanship. Sunlit living and dining spaces flow effortlessly to multiple timber entertaining decks, while a wood-burning fireplace, skylights and a relaxed beachside kitchen create warm, inviting spaces for everyday living and effortless entertaining.

Spanning three levels and accessed via inclinator from a two-vehicle carport, the home provides exceptional privacy and flexibility for families. The king-sized master suite enjoys its own balcony and ensuite, while additional bedrooms open to sun-drenched terraces that embrace cooling sea breezes and leafy surrounds.

Impressive in both scale and setting, the residence presents an
