

98 Mackenzie Street, Wondai

Classic Cottage Project

Packed with potential and ready for a complete transformation, this original worker's cottage presents an excellent opportunity for buyers prepared to roll up their sleeves. Positioned on a generous 1,012sqm block within walking distance to the heart of Wondai, and located directly opposite the RSL and town swimming pool, the property offers a highly convenient location and a blank canvas for your next renovation project.

The home is in fair to basic condition and does require work throughout. Inside, the layout is functional and includes a kitchen, combined lounge and dining area, two bedrooms, sleepout, bathroom, and separate toilet, providing a solid starting point for restoration or redesign.

With its character features still intact and waiting to be revived, this property will appeal to experienced renovators, tradespeople, or investors searching for a project with genuine upside. For those with the vision and determination, this is a rare chance to restore a classic Wondai cottage and unlock the full potential of both the home and the sizeable block
