Location is key, and this property delivers. Enjoy being just a short five-minute walk to the popular Darlington Parklands, a fantastic recreational space for families featuring playgrounds, water play areas, and picnic spots. You're also moments from Coles at the local shopping centre, making daily errands effortless.

Yarrabilba is renowned for its welcoming, community-focused atmosphere, quality schools, parklands, and ongoing development, making it one of South East Queensland's most exciting and fast-growing residential hubs.

Whether you're looking to step into the property market, secure a solid investment in a high-growth corridor, or find a comfortable home in a family-oriented neighbourhood, 12 Sandell Street is an opportunity not to be missed.

Enquire today and experience the lifestyle for yourself.

Yarrabilba is a thriving master-planned community ideally positioned between Brisbane and the Gold Coast, offering a relaxed suburban lifestyle with excellent access to nature, amenities and future growth. Today the area features multiple schools, childcare centres, parks and recreational spaces, local shops, health services and regular community events that bring neighbours together.

What makes Yarrabilba truly exciting is what's still to come - a major town centre with expanded retail, cafés and employment opportunities, an extensive network of walking and cycling paths, and vibrant community facilities designed to enhance connection and lifestyle. A fully integrated, family-focused and future-ready community - Yarrabilba is growing. Come be part of it all.
