Near-New, Family Home & Ready for you to Move in

Welcome to 9 Barunga Street, Yarrabilba, a near-new home where the hard work has already been done, the floorplan makes sense, and there's enough space for everyone to enjoy a little breathing room.

Built in 2025 and positioned on a generous 448m² block, this four-bedroom, two-bathroom home is an exciting opportunity for families and first-home buyers wanting something modern, practical and ready to enjoy without going through the time, cost and uncertainty of building.

And for investors? With four bedrooms, multiple living spaces and a location within one of South East Queensland's growing master-planned communities, there's plenty here to like.

Step inside and you'll immediately appreciate a layout designed around everyday life. At the heart of the home, the open-plan kitchen, living and dining area creates a central hub where dinners are shared, homework gets done at the bench and everyone can come together at the end of the day.

But when movie night calls, or the kids simply need their own space, the separate media room gives you that all-important second living area. Whether it becomes the home cinema, kids' retreat, gaming room or somewhere to escape with a good book, it's the kind of extra space that quickly becomes hard to live without.

Four bedrooms provide room for a growing family, guests or even a dedicated home office, while two bathrooms and a double garage complete the practical family-friendly package.

Outside, the 448m² allotment offers considerably more breathing room than many of today's compact new-build blocks, giving you space to enjoy the outdoors without signing yourself up for endless weekends of maintenance.

A Location Families Will Love

One of the biggest drawcards here is the Yarrabilba lifestyle. Yarrabilba has been designed with families in mind, bringing together schools, childcare, parks, playgrounds, sporting facilities, walking tracks, shops, cafes and everyday conveniences within the wider community.

Weekends don't always have to mean piling everyone into the car. There's an abundance of green space and recreational areas throughout Yarrabilba, while local shopping, dining and services continue to make day-to-day life increasingly convenient.

Families are also well catered for when it comes to education, with multiple schooling options throughout the community, including Yarrabilba State School, Yarrabilba State Secondary College, South Rock State School, St Clare's Catholic Primary School and San Damiano College.

Positioned between Brisbane and the Gold Coast, Yarrabilba also offers connectivity to the wider South East Queensland region while allowing you to come home to a community with plenty happening right on your doorstep.

For first-home buyers, this is an opportunity to skip the building process and step into a home that's barely a year old.

For families, it's four bedrooms, two living areas and a backyard on a well-sized block.

And for investors, it's a modern, low-maintenance property in an established and continually developing community.

9 Barunga Street isn't just another new home, it's one you can start enjoying now.

If you've been waiting for the right combination of space, age, location and practicality, this could be the one that finally gets you off the property apps and through the front door.

Come and see it for yourself, you'll be glad you did.
