With 5 bedrooms on offer on the upper level, the main bedroom to the left of the hallway providing separation and privacy, is air-conditioned with a walk-in wardrobe, and striking, modern, black, and white ensuite. The other 4 bedrooms are oversized with room for the queen beds and study desks. A study sits at the entry, a perfect work from home space, or extension to the bedroom to add a walk-in robe or playroom. The spacious open plan lounge and dining encourages the family lifestyle. There is also a second living room on this level that could convert to another bedroom if needed, connecting through to the back deck via French doors. The tidy kitchen is ready for an upgrade, but very usable in the meantime with gas cooktop, dishwasher, great storage and connects through to the deck via bi-fold windows. The large, covered back deck completes the upper-level layout, offering the perfect place to entertain and relax, overlooking the beautiful backyard, elevated and private.

Descend the internal stairs to the real bonus of the home. The lower level offers so many living opportunities from a work from home space with separate entry for clients to the perfect teenagers retreat where the friends can come over and play pool and watch movies; the options are endless. The large laundry could double up as a kitchenette making this a perfect self-contained level or ideal extension of the home. There is another covered entertainment space that sits under the deck, along with a new bathroom. Families will love the space this level offers, providing independence when needed for the teenage kids, adults or work from home set up.

There is a large double carport plus great lock up storage areas under the home. To the back of the home there is also a roller door shed, ideal for bike storage with another lock up shed for the garden tools.
