

5 William Street, Young

Untapped Potential with Character to Spare

Adam Strong from LJ Hooker Young is pleased to present 5 William Street, Young to the market — a character-filled property offering an exciting opportunity for buyers looking to renovate, add value and create something special.

Set in a convenient location less than 500m* from the local primary school and approximately 1.5km* from Young's CBD, this home combines classic street appeal with generous living spaces and plenty of scope to modernise and personalise.

The existing home offers two bedrooms (with built in robes) plus two sleep-outs, a formal lounge room, spacious kitchen and dining area, sunny north-facing family room, split system air conditioning and natural gas heating. While comfortable in its current form, the property presents an excellent opportunity to undertake a renovation and transform the home to suit your own style and needs. The 9ft ceilings, timber flooring and original features add to the appeal.

Adding significant appeal is the large workshop/garage at the rear, complete with an existing bathroom. With its size, facilities and separation from the main residence, this space offers exciting
