

Stirling Estate, Lot 92/ Edwards Road

A Nature Lover's Escape by the Sea

Tucked away at the very end of a quiet country road, this 45-acre (18 ha) lifestyle property offers that rare mix of seclusion and coastal charm, without being completely off the grid. Surrounded by small rural holdings and separated from the pristine waters of the Indian Ocean by only a stretch of coastal dunes, this is a peaceful pocket where nature thrives, wildlife wanders, and the world feels just a little slower.

Privately positioned and wonderfully secluded, the land is mostly flat with gentle undulations and low-lying areas that transform into natural wetlands in the winter, becoming a haven for native birds and wildlife. Formerly used for cattle grazing, the owners have invested a lot of time into rewilding the property with native trees and shrubs, which are now well established, developing into a thriving ecosystem that supports flora and fauna in abundance.

An easement across the adjoining property provides direct access to the beach, just over the dunes, an unspoiled stretch of coastline where you can tow the tinny down launch from the beach and enjoy world-class fishing, paddle out for a surf or dive, or simply wander for miles without seeing another soul, just you, the waves, and the wind.

Existing infrastructure means you don't have to wait to start enjoying this slice of coastal paradise. A substantial powered shed with a paved skillion patio offers the perfect base for weekend stays and outdoor entertaining, while a large water tank ensures ample supply. Power has already been connected and brought forward to a prime building site.

So, whether you're planning to camp out in comfort now or build your dream coastal retreat later, much of the groundwork is already done.

With so few lifestyle properties offering both beach access and convenience, this is the kind of place people search years to find... and often miss out on because they don't act fast.

Whether you're dreaming of a peaceful weekend getaway, a self-sufficient lifestyle property, or exploring the potential for eco-tourism with glamping or nature-based short stays, this is a blank canvas with extraordinary potential.
